

Myths	A traditional story, especially one concerning the early history of a people, explaining the origins of life or explaining a natural or social phenomenon (how something came to be), and typically involving gods, supernatural beings or events.
Legends	A very old, semi-true story or set of stories from ancient times, about a famous event or person. Usually including an element of truth, or based on historic facts, but with 'mythical qualities'. They usually involve heroic characters or fantastic places and often encompass the spiritual beliefs of the culture in which they originate.
Fairy Tales	Entertaining stories, mostly related to children's literature, involving magical events like enchantments, and imaginary creatures like elves, dwarves, witches etc.
Fables	Short, simple, fictional story which teaches a moral lesson, often ending with a sentence stating that moral. Animals, legendary creatures, or other non-human creatures are given human qualities (for example the ability to speak human language), and act as the main characters.
Nursery rhymes	A traditional, short, poem or song for very young children. Many are thought to have a hidden meaning and origin.

Hercules
King Arthur
Hansel and Gretel
The Tortoise and the Hare
Humpty Dumpty